

Filling in the Message

This game promotes listening, questioning and reminds participants how much energy, skill and patience it takes to clearly articulate an idea to others.

- Participants sit back to back against each other.
- Player 1 is given a picture that they must describe to the other participant.
- Player 2 draws a picture based on verbal instructions from Player 1.
- Player 2 can then ask a few questions of Player 1 to complete the picture.
- Compare the drawing and image when the time is up.
- Swap roles or get other players to try out the game.
- Option to discuss learning immediately or at the evening interval.
